DESERTED BRIDE OF A DAY. She Starts at Night to Walk Back

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Harrodsburg, Ky., Oct. 24.—A well-dressed couple stopped in front of the Enterprise Hotel at Perryville, ten miles from here, last light. The man entered the hotel and asked if ledging and board could be furnished himself and wife for two hotel and asked if ledging and board could be furnished himself and wife for two weeks. Satisfactory arrangements having been made with the proprietor, he accompanied his wife to their room. He told her he wished to step down into the office of the hotel a few minutes, after which he would return. She patiently waited, but he never came back, and finally she came down herself to make inquiries, and discovered that he had left. She then fainted. No information could be obtained from her except that she had just married the man that accompanied her to the hotel. She gave her name as Fowler, and said her home was in Willisburg, Washington County, Despite the kind officers of the proprietor of the hotel, the woman, as soon as she sufficiently recovered, started at midnight to waik home, a distance of thirty miles. She said she would never leave her parents again. Nothing has been heard of Fowler. The young woman is said to be of a good Washington County family.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Wichita, Kas., Oct. 24.—Reports have been circulated throughout the West that exVice President Stevenson was a member of the Knights of the Golden Circle. This was done to prevent certain parties prejudiced against that antebelium organization from bolting the Democratic ticket. In a latter to J. O. Hawley, received to-day, Mr. Stevenson says: "I have never been a momber of the Knights of the Golden Circle, no any society or organization of a disloyal character. All such charges against me are absolutely false."
